

Online Mindful Mentoring and Teaching Courses

EDU 620 (September 14 - December 30 – biweekly reflections)

Mentoring in Action: Becoming a Qualified Mentor and Leader

This course includes what a mentor should know and be able to do, how to align conversations to educator evaluation, how to create a district plan, and how to differentiate mentoring conversations to meet the varied needs of novice teachers. Mindfulness and leadership are also introduced.

For any teacher who:

- needs to be trained as a mentor.
- seeks a refresher course that aligns with current standards.
- wants to organize and implement a comprehensive induction program.

COST: $595 includes all fees, 3 graduate credits and 67.5 PDPs

EDU 645 (September 14 – June 16 – monthly reflections)

Maintaining Your Balance: Becoming an Effective Teacher

This year-long course provides support to a beginning teacher who would benefit from a one-one online mentor. Using the book, The First Years Matter 2nd ed., course participants reflect on teaching practices and try new strategies in their classrooms. This course meets the requirement for 50 hours of mentoring.

For novice teachers who:

- have completed at least one year of teaching in the district.
- would benefit from graduate credit and meeting the 50-hour mentoring requirement.
- are interested in using student perspectives to enhance their teaching.

COST: $595 includes all fees and 3 graduate credits

EDU 646 (September 28 - January 6 – biweekly reflections)

Mindful Teaching: Refining Your Practice to Inspire Student Learning

For any teacher who:

- is seeking practical professional development and wants to earn credit.
- has completed at least one year of induction and would like to earn 40 mentoring hours toward the 50 hours required beyond year 1.
- is struggling with aspects of the Educator Evaluation and wants to improve.

COST: $595 includes all fees, 3 graduate credits and 67.5 PDPs (for teachers who are at professional license). This course meets 40 hours of the 50 hours of mentoring required beyond year 1.
